About This Course

Time is a form of currency, and the ways you talk about it illustrate its value: people say Time is money, and My time was well spent, or It's a waste of time. Like most professionals, you've probably struggled with managing time effectively. In this course, you will acquire day-to-day time-management tools that will help you more effectively use your time so you can direct your energy towards fulfilling your short- and long-term professional and personal goals. Your time is a precious and limited resource. Too often, you may feel frustrated that there aren't enough hours in the day to accomplish everything you hope to do. Effective time managers enjoy the satisfaction of directing their talents and energy towards productive, goal-centered activities.

Private classes on this topic are available. We can address your organization's issues, time constraints, and save you money, too. Contact us to find out how.

Who Should Attend

Professionals in a variety of fields who are seeking improved time-management skills, so that they can meet their long-term goals and perform more effectively will benefit from this course.

Prerequisites & Entry Requirements

General Prerequisites:

To ensure your success, we recommend you have some level of work experience in any of a variety of organizational settings, and general end-user computer and Internet skills.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

State your goals. Analyze how you are currently allocating your most precious resources: energy and time. Identify elements of your personal work style that contribute to your effective use of time.

Assemble a collection of time-management tools and strategies that you can use to take control of your time. Create an action plan for your time-management process and identify ways to evaluate and improve your efforts.
