Course Overview

In this course, you will learn the core components of emotional intelligence and apply them to strengthen self-awareness, self-regulation, and relationship effectiveness at work and beyond. You will explore how emotions are created and how to drive your own responses to situations. In addition, you will learn how to use empathy to connect with others and lead to outcomes that benefit individuals, their teams, and their organization. This course is for anyone seeking to understand themselves and others and to cultivate authentic, meaningful relationships. You will work with each capability necessary for emotional intelligence and come away with strategies you can use immediately in your interactions with others.
